5 v.

6 Cyberzenn, LLC, et al.,

7 Defendants

Case No. 2:23-cv-01883-CDS-DJA

Order Requiring Plaintiffs to Serve
Notice of Hearing

9 Plaintiffs Nutramax Laboratories, Inc. and Nutramax Laboratories Veterinary Sciences,
10 Inc. (collectively, Nutramax) filed a motion for an injunction to permanently enjoin defendants 11 Cyberzenn, LLC, Raychel Gonzalez, and Darina Beckett from unlawfully interfering with 12 Nutramax's contractual relationships with its authorized resellers and from infringing
13 Nutramax's trademarks in connection with the sale and distribution of unauthorized Nutramax 14 products. ECF No. 16. Nutramax also moves for default judgment against defendants because 15 each defendant has failed to plead or otherwise defend in this matter. Id. The motions are 16 scheduled to be heard on May 2, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. Min. order, ECF No. 17.

17 Nutramax is hereby ordered to serve defendants with this order as soon as practicable.
18 Under this district's Local Rules, service of documents in paper form is required, even if the 19 document is electronically filed, when a document is served on non-filers. LR IC 4-1(c)(6). And 20 "[p]arties and attorneys who are not filers must be served conventionally under applicable
21 Federal Rules, statutes, or court orders." Id. at (b). Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5(b)(C) 22 states that paper service is proper by "mailing it to the person's last known address—in which 23 event service is complete upon mailing." Nutramax must file proof of service by mail no later 24 than May 1, 2024.
